Ein Muss für David Janssen Fans Von Waltraud Neitzsch Das Buch von Ellie Janssen schildert eindrucksvoll die 50er Jahre sowie das damalige Lebensgefühl. Eine Idee wäre doch z.B. dieses Buch in das Deutsche zu übersetzen. Ich denke es gäbe auch genügend deutsche David Janssen Fans. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. An interesting but subjective read... Von Ein Kunde The book title tells it all: Ellie Janssen, the author, tells the story of how former husband David became successful as TV's Dr. Kimble during the 1960s. She highlights the factors contributing to the downfall of their marriage, particularly David's drinking and extramarital affairs. If you are a David Janssen or Fugitive fan, this book lends an interesting perspective, along with several rare photos. However, it is understandably subjective, as Ms. Janssen struggles to explain the tumultuous nature of her relationship with David. The book raises some suspicion as to the circumstances surrounding David's untimely death in 1980.
