KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Infos zu kurzVon Philipp2410Die Reihe "Photographing" ist eigentlich absolut herausragend. das gilt aber nur uerst bedingt fr diesen Band, der einfach zu viel in einem Buch erreichen will. Besser wre es wohl gewesen, die Welt in 2 Teile aufzuteilen und jedem ein derartiges Werk zu widmen. So sind die Infos letztlich zu oberflächlich und die Zahl der angesprochenen Objekte zu gering. schade

KurzbeschreibungA highly inspirational guide to 201 of the world's most majestic landscapes: Famous world locations, as well as many lesser-known photogenic spots, with first-hand information about how, when, and where to photograph them. A wonderful reservoir of ideas for your future travel adventures. Chock-full of insightful first-hand accounts by renowned photographer Tom Till, Photographing the World is a must-have resource to expand your travel horizons and image portfolio beyond the United States. It will take you on a highly-inspirational journey of discovery to all five continents, exploring some of the world's most beautiful mountains, deserts, lakes, rivers, coastlines, wetlands, forests, archeological sites, cityscapes, and tourist attractions. Photographing the World is the culmination of Master Photographer Tom Till's twenty-five+ years of exploring and photographing the world. Whether you are a pro, an amateur photographer, or simply an avid traveler with a modest interest in photography, you will experience the world's finest scenic wonders by visiting Tom's suggested locations.KurzbeschreibungA highly inspirational guide to 201 of the world's most majestic landscapes: Famous world locations, as well as many lesser-known photogenic spots, with first-hand information about how, when, and where to photograph them.
