Eine schne LiebesgeschichteVon CustomerIch muss sagen, ich liebe Bcher, in denen es um Musik und Rockstars geht und als ich dann dieses Buch sah, war es Liebe auf den ersten Blick, denn normales Mdchen trifft auf Megastar? Genau mein Ding.Libby hat mir richtig leid getan. Ihre Tante, bei der sie lebte, war einfach nur grausam und erlaubte ihr kaum etwas und klaute sogar Libby's Geld. Ich htte der Tante am liebsten den Hals umgedreht.Durch ihre Umstnde ist Libby oft allein und hat kaum Freunde, da sie sich nicht traut, ihnen von ihrem Leben zu erzhlen, da sie sich zu sehr dafr schmt.Jedoch dann trifft sie auf Peter, den Rockstar. Von dem sie noch die etwas gehrt hat und ihm zuerst gar nicht glaubt, dass er berhmt ist.Aber Peter ist trotz seines Starlebens nicht eingebildet und mchte dem traurigen schnen Mdchen helfen und verliebt sich dabei in sie.Er ist einfach ein wirklich toller Charakter, der sich fr seine Mitmenschen interessiert und denen, die er liebt, immer zur Seite steht.Zugegebenermaen entwickelt sich die Liebesgeschichte hier ziemlich schnell, aber es fhlt sich in diesem Buch sehr natrlich und wunderschn an. Die beiden harmonischen sehr toll miteinander und stehen einander zu Seite, auch wenn sich ihnen viele Probleme in den Weg stellen.Die Story wird in der Ich-Form erzht und wechselt zwischen der Sicht und Libby und Peter, sodass man einen guten Einblick in ihr Gefhlsleben bekommt und so besser mit ihnen mitfhlen kann.Jedoch muss ich sagen, dass ich hier keine fnf Sterne vergeben kann. Es war zwar sehr schn aber der Funke ist nicht so ganz bergesprungen, wobei ich nicht mal wirlich wei, woran das liegt. Das gewisse Etwas hat mir hier einfach gefehlt.Nichtsdestotrotz ist es eine sehr schne und bewegende Liebesgeschichte zwischen zwei Menschen, die aus unterschiedlichen Welten kommen und aus diesem Grund einige Hrden zu berwinden haben.Deshalb: Empfehlung an alle Romantiker und Musikliebende.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Feelings!Von MagritteThis is the first part of "The Jamieson collection"- Rock and a Hard Place- Snapshot (The Jamieson Collection)This is the story of a poor, lost, lonely girl who meets a handsome, rich, famous and amazing guy, who falls in love and saves her, or rather she saves herself.Why change a storyline that works since centuries? Make it modern: transform the prince in a rock singer and composer, the evil stepmother is the pot smoking, drinking aunt, and her father is gone due to depression after her mothers and sister's death in a car crash.She is Libby a 16 year old girl; he is Peter, the leader of the Jamieson group. They meet, answer each other needs, become friends and fall in love. They become each others balance. Until something separates them, keeps them from finding each other and things get worse and worse...I really liked the book. It is short only 207 pages, but it is really well written and takes you into the depth of fear, loneliness and despair, but also shows you the beauty of love.The characters are great, I laughed, I cried, I got angry, I felt sadness and hope, the feeling were flowing from the pages and keeping me awake much too long at night, so I was happy it wasn't a much longer book as I wouldn't have gotten any sleep.Libby evolves trough the book which is really great, Peter has no problem admitting his love and his attachment to her. Sometimes both seemed so nave however planning their future that it was a bit annoying. What one could have enjoyed would have probably been a bit more about the music business, but that did not seem to be the point of the book, more the character development.If you like a classical story with some modern elements about two real human beings, you will enjoy the book. It is definitely a fast and nice read.Enjoy the read MBTM
