KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. great book well writtenVon Lothar Bodingbauerexcellent new ideas which happen to be around beyond my radar as teacher.

written by experts. this book is my missing handbook of teaching since i started 10 years ago unhappy with traditional teaching science style. thanks guys, these 24 i have invested well.

Kurzbeschreibung Introduce your students to the magic of stories delivered through educational case studies that will help you put science into vivid context. Start With A Story offers an abundance of strategies, tips, examples, ideas, and resources to free your students (and you) from dry lecture formats. Start With A Story is a collection of more than 40 essays published primarily as columns in NSTA's member publication, Journal of College Science Teaching. The collection examines every aspect of the case study method.
