In telling her life story St. Therese of Lisieux reveals in the process a sure and simple (though not necessarily easy) method to achieve union with God's will and the serenity of the soul that accompanies this. The style, while distinctively late 19th century, adds rather than detracts from the charm this book. The Story of a Soul is just that. It relates one soul's mystical journey toward holiness and union with God. I highly recommend it.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Lovely!Von CarrieSt. Therese shows deep spiritual wisdom and beauty. Her life is to be an example for all of us! What is written in this book has a combination of the strength of Augustine's CONFESSIONS and the humbleness of Teresa of Avila's biography. Together, that makes this a wonderful book for a person of any kind to look for counsel in Therese. A lovely book, I suggest it for everyon!

We tried to show the simple nature of Saint Therese. We hope that this book may open the door for many to "Be like little children before the Lord." Thank you and may God repay you for your little deeds of Mercy, love and Charity.
