Von Linda Howard : TEARS OF THE RENEGADE (Harlequin comics) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised TEARS OF THE RENEGADE (Harlequin comics):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen8 von 9 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. too shortVon Ein KundeTears of Renegade is a release of an older Linda Howard book. At a party the widow Susan meets Cord, the black sheep of her husbands family. Soon she is torn between her passion for Cord and her loyalty towards her husbands family. This is a terrific book, but too short to challenge "Shades of Twilight" or "After the Night".0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Not one of her bestVon AmandaI'm a huge fan of Linda Howard. Written in 1987 "Tears of the Renegade" is one of her older books and it feels like watching a "Dynasty"-rerun on TV.

It's very 80ies and not as gripping and exciting as her recent books. Try "Mr Perfect", "Kill and Tell" or "All the Queen's Men" and you'll see the difference. 2 von 3 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. not one of Linda Howard's best Von Ein Kunde What I found hard to believe is how Susan can love a man who is bent on destroying everything she has worked for. I found the storyline absolutely unbelievable. Cord came across as a nasty, manipulative and ruthless character - it was hard to believe that he loved anyone. The two stars are for the love scenes which Linda Howard is always good at. But this is not one of her best books. Not comparable to Heart of Fire or Dream Man.

Kurzbeschreibung At a party hosted by the Blackstone family, the estranged Cord Blackstone comes home to claim his rightful inheritance. He wants the lease to the mountain that Susan has inherited through her deceased husband. Mistrust and knife fights will be only the beginning of the battle for the mountain, but the bigger challenge they might face is realizing that they love one another.
